BROWZ CEO, Elaine Beitler has been named Overall CEO of the Year, and featured in this month's edition of Acquisition International

SALT LAKE CITY, April 7, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Acquisition International has published their April, 2016 magazine, naming Elaine Beitler Overall CEO of the Year, the USA. Since 2010, Acquisition International has been the publication of choice for business leaders and decision makers looking to get the inside track on the issues, comment, opinion and developments shaping the global corporate landscape.

According to the publication's website, "Since 2010, Acquisition International Magazine's annual awards have been highlighting the amazing work done by those firms and individuals whose ceaseless dedication to innovation, customer care and the continued growth and improvement of their businesses has seen them forge ahead of their competitors and raise the bar for performance and results in their industry. We pride ourselves - and rightly so - on the validity of our awards and winners, an approach that is reflected in the rigorous and tightly monitored nomination, judging and selection processes."

In the feature article, Acquisition International reports, "Beitler has been with BROWZ for the last 5 years, during that time they've experienced an exciting growth phase. BROWZ has seen a 300% increase in client growth since 2010, these new clients are some of the world's more recognizable brands. They attribute this growth to an expansive product solution that they've aggressively developed over time."

BROWZ ensures that supply chains are safe, qualified, and socially responsible by delivering a comprehensive contractor prequalification solution to assess, and monitor the supply chains of their global clientele including members of the Fortune 100. In this process, BROWZ provides comprehensive assessments of supply chain members, using patented, configurable technology and expertise, resulting in the site operator's confidence of a safer work environment for clients and supply chains around the world.

When asked about the award, Beitler said, "I'm personally honored to be recognized by this highly-respected organization for this prestigious award. I see this award as a reflection of our many achievements in 2015, in advancing and differentiating our solution. I share this honor with an incredibly talented leadership team and the hundreds of employees who are fully committed to the company and the safety of the global workforce."
